ANNIE BREWSTER, in her last letter from Rome has some pleasant bits of gossip about the pope. His holiness is in excellent health. Dr. Cecearelli, the successor of Dr. Sartoris who went over with appoplexy a few weeks ago, is succeeding famously in his direction of the holy father's health. Dr. Cecearelli, itis to be hoped, will watch his own health, and remember that unlucky Sarforis was the sixth or seventh physician the pope has lost in ten years. The holy father no longer takes his walks in the vatican gardens, the weather is too hot the evaporation from the numerous foun-; tains causes dampness; the temperature

LORD HOUGHTON, in the course of a recent address in England, referred to his visit to this country as follows: Although at the present moment people in the United States were making a series of orations about English tyranny and English oppression, and all that sort of nonsense, he believed, as a nation, they held to us with a feeling of fraternal and nlial regard. With regard to agriculture, he said that within the next fifty years America will have been reduced, notwithstanding its immense space, very THE POWER OF BLACK much to the condition of the European countries in general; that was to say, she would have to recuperate by artifinow being exhausted.

A SPANISH POEM. Oh! le! the soul lis slumbers break To see how soon file, with its glory glides away,
And the stern footsteps of decay
Come steading on.

And while we eye the rolling fide Down which our flowing minutes glide Away on fast, Let us the present hour employ.
And deem each future dream of joy
Already past.

Let no vain hope deceive the mind— No happier let us hope to find To-morrow than to-day. Our golden dreams of yore were bright— Like them the present shall delight, Like them decay.

Our lives like hasting streams must be,
That into one engulfing sea
Are dooned to lall—
The sea of death, whose waves roll on
O er king and kingdom, crown and throne,
And swallow all.

Alike the river's lordly tide,
Alike the humble riv'let's glide
To that sad wave;
Death levels properly and pride,
And rich and poor sleep side by side
Within the grave. Our birth is but the starting place, Life is the running of the race And qualit the goal,

S y, then, how poor and little worth Are all those glittering toys of carrh
That line us here?
Dreams of a s'ecp that death must break
Alas! before it lidds us wake,
Ye disappear.
